Fashion Scoops

BOTTOMS UP: Rande Gerber has two children and a supermodel wife, but he isn't about to relinquish remnants of his bachelor days. So much so that on Tuesday the nightlife entrepreneur talked up his signature Midnight Bar collection of cocktail mixers on air with Oprah Winfrey and Henri Bendel launched a showcase of the potions in its Fifth Avenue windows. Through Nov. 12, shoppers can also sample the mixers in the flagship. Gerber used friends and presumably his better half, Cindy Crawford, to test the lemon drop, pomegranate martini and five other mixers. Fabien Baron was called upon to finesse the products' design.
